DATE REGISTERED: 3 February 2020

APPLICATION NO: P2020/0065

LOCATION: 20 Lletty Dafydd, Clyne, SA11 4BG

PROPOSAL: Demolition of existing garage and the construction of single storey side and rear extensions, outbuilding, balcony and new steps.

THE NEATH PORT TALBOT COUNTY BOROUGH COUNCIL AS THE LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY IN PURSUANCE OF ITS POWER UNDER THE ABOVE MENTIONED ACT AND ORDER HEREBY REFUSES TO PERMIT THE PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:-

Reasons For Refusal:-

1 The proposed extension by reason of it's location, scale and massing would over elongate the front elevation of this semi-detached dwelling thereby materially and adversely affect the character and appearance of the host dwelling while also unbalance the pair of semi-detached properties, to the detriment of the character and appearance of the surrounding area. The resulting proposed extension results in a lack of consideration of the principles of good design as set out and encouraged within TAN 12 and echoed through the Authority's own Supplementary Planning Guidance: Design and Policy BE1 of the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan.

Informatives:

1 The proposed development lies within a coal mining area which may contain unrecorded coal mining related hazards. If any coal mining feature is encountered during development, this should be reported immediately to the Coal Authority on 0345 762 6848.

Further information is also available on the Coal Authority website at:
www.gov.uk/government/organisations/the-coal-authority

Reasons for conclusion

The decision to recommend planning permission has been taken in accordance with Section 38 of The Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, which requires that, in determining a planning application the determination must be in accordance with the Development Plan unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The Development Plan comprises the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan (2011-2026) adopted January 2016.

The proposed development will result in an unacceptable form of extension to this semi-detached property, due to the excessive scale and massing of the proposed extension in relation to the original dwelling and the unacceptable impacts of the extension upon the character and design of the existing dwelling and the adjoining property. The proposal is therefore considered to be an unacceptable form of development which adversely affects the appearance of the dwelling, the adjoining property and the wider surrounding area. This would be contrary to the overarching thrust of Tan 12: Design, in promoting and achieving good design, Policy BE1 of the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan and Supplementary Planning Guidance: Design, including the Household Design Guide.

It is further considered that the decision complies with the Council's well-being objectives and the sustainable development principle in accordance with the requirements of the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015.

Ceri Morris – Head of Planning & Public Protection

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

The applicant's attention is drawn to the notes below.

3. You can also appeal If your application for a Certificate of Lawful Existing Use or Lawful Proposed Use is partly or wholly refused or is granted differently from what you asked for (under Section 195/196) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
4. If you are aggrieved of the LPAs decision, the following deadlines apply for appeals to be submitted to the Welsh Government (from the date of the Council's decision):-

6. The Welsh Government has power to allow a longer period for the giving of notice of appeal but they will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
7. The Welsh Government is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to them that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted having regard to the statutory requirements to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the Order.
