PROPOSAL: Single storey front and rear extensions

THE NEATH PORT TALBOT COUNTY BOROUGH COUNCIL AS THE LOCAL PLANNING AUTHORITY IN PURSUANCE OF ITS POWER UNDER THE ABOVE MENTIONED ACT AND ORDER HEREBY REFUSES TO PERMIT THE PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:-

Reasons For Refusal:-

1 The proposed front extension due to its prominent siting, scale, massing and design would form an incongruous feature and have an adverse impact on the design and character of the host dwelling. This adverse impact would be further exacerbated by its position forward the principal elevations of the neighbouring properties to the detriment of the character and appearance of the street scene. The proposed extension demonstrates a lack of consideration of the principles of good design as set out and encouraged within TAN 12 and echoed through the Authority's own Supplementary Planning Guidance: Design and would be contrary to Policy BE 1 of the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan.

2 The proposed front extension due to its close proximity to the common boundary with no 17 Wenallt Road and its overall length, will result in the formation of a dominant feature to the front elevation in close proximity to habitable room windows of the neighbouring property resulting in a overbearing and overshadowing impact to the detriment of the residential amenity of the occupiers of the neighbouring properties and would be contrary to Policy BE1 of the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan.

Informatives:

1 The proposed development lies within an area that has defined by the Coal Authority as containing potential hazards arising from former coal mining activity. These hazards can include: mine entries (shafts and adits); shallow coal workings; geological features (fissures and break lines); mine gas and previous surface mining sites. Although such hazards are seldom readily visible, they can often be present and problems can occur in the future, particularly as a result of development taking place.

It is recommended that information outlining how the former mining activities affect the proposed development, along with any mitigation measures required (for example the need for gas protection measures within the foundations), be submitted alongside any subsequent application for Building Regulations approval (if relevant). Any form of development over or within the influencing distance of a mine entry can be dangerous and raises significant safety and engineering risks and exposes all parties to potential financial liabilities. As a general precautionary principle, the Coal Authority considers that the building over or within the influencing distance of a mine entry should wherever possible be avoided. In exceptional circumstance where this is unavoidable, expert advice must be sought to ensure that a suitable engineering design is developed and agreed with regulatory bodies which takes into account of all the relevant safety and environmental risk factors, including gas and mine-water. Your attention is drawn to the Coal Authority Policy in relation to new development and mine entries available at:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/building-on-or-within-the-influencing-distance-of-mine-entries>

Any intrusive activities which disturb or enter any coal seams, coal mine workings or coal mine entries (shafts and adits) requires a Coal Authority Permit. Such activities could include site investigation boreholes, digging of foundations, piling activities, other ground works and any subsequent treatment of coal mine workings and coal mine entries for ground stability purposes.

Failure to obtain a Coal Authority Permit for such activities is trespass, with the potential for court action. Property specific summary information on past, current and future coal mining activity can be obtained from: www.groundstability.com or a similar service provider.

If any of the coal mining features are unexpectedly encountered during development, this should be reported immediately to the Coal Authority on 0345 762 6848. Further information is available on the Coal Authority website at: www.gov.uk/government/organisations/the-coal-authority

The proposed extension to the front of the dwelling due to its prominent siting, scale, massing and design will have an adverse impact on the design and character of the host dwelling. The extension forward the principal elevations of the neighbouring properties would also adversely affect the character and appearance of the street scene. The front extension due to its close proximity to the common boundary with no 17 Wenallt Road and its over all length, will provide a dominant feature to the front elevation in close proximity to habitable room windows contrary to Criteria 4 of Policy BE1, resulting in an adverse impact on the residential amenity of the occupiers of the adjoining neighbouring property. The resulting proposed extension results in a lack of consideration of the principles of good design as set out and encouraged within TAN 12 and echoed through the Authority's own Supplementary Planning Guidance: Design and Policy BE1 of the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan.

The decision to refuse planning permission has been taken in accordance with Section 38 of The Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, which requires that, in determining a planning application the determination must be in accordance with the Development Plan unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The Development Plan comprises the Neath Port Talbot Local Development Plan (2011-2026) adopted January 2016.

It is further considered that the decision complies with the Council's well-being objectives and the sustainable development principle in accordance with the requirements of the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015.

Ceri Morris – Head of Planning & Public Protection

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

The applicant's attention is drawn to the notes below.

2. You can also appeal to the Welsh Government against a decision to refuse permission or grant subject to conditions in respect of applications made for :- Listed Building or Conservation Area Consent; Consent under a Tree Preservation Order; Advertisement Consent.
3. You can also appeal If your application for a Certificate of Lawful Existing Use or Lawful Proposed Use is partly or wholly refused or is granted differently from what you asked for (under Section 195/196) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).
4. If you are aggrieved of the LPAs decision, the following deadlines apply for appeals to be submitted to the Welsh Government (from the date of the Council's decision):-

The Welsh Government is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to them that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted having regard to the statutory requirements to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the Order.
