

Supporting Statement

The annex will be occupied by family members of the main dwelling. It will be used as spill over accommodation to the main dwelling.

Main meals will be held in the principal dwelling. A small kitchen in the annex will serve smaller individual meals for the annex occupier.

Gas, Electricity, and water will be metered through the main dwelling. The annex will not have separate meters.

Residents of the main dwelling will still have access to the ground floor games room as well as the occupier of the annex.