The image displays two architectural drawings of a basement plan, labeled 'PROPOSED BASEMENT PLAN' and 'ORIGINAL BASEMENT PLAN'. Both drawings show a building footprint with a basement, a path, and a garden. The proposed plan includes a new patio, a new retaining wall, and a new opening with patio doors. The original plan shows a lawn and a path. A large 'DRAFT' watermark is visible across the drawings.

PROPOSED BASEMENT PLAN

The proposed plan shows a building footprint with a basement. A path leads from the garden level up to the garden level. A new patio is shown with a new retaining wall and a new opening with patio doors. The levels to be reduced to allow for essential maintenance work and construction of a new opening with patio doors are indicated. The first floor level is shown. The garden level is shown with concrete steps up to the garden level.

ORIGINAL BASEMENT PLAN

The original plan shows a building footprint with a basement. A path leads from the garden level up to the garden level. A lawn is shown. The levels to be reduced to allow for essential maintenance work and construction of a new opening with patio doors are indicated. The first floor level is shown. The garden level is shown with concrete steps up to the garden level.
