Is the proposed operation or use

☒ Permanent

☐ Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

A Certificate of Lawful Use should be granted because planning precedents suggest that the use of a C3 dwelling house as a children's home of this size does not require a planning application for a change of use from C3 to C2 because the level and pattern of activity at the premises does not materially differ from that of any ordinary family.

Please refer to the covering letter prepared by GJP, which details the planning justification for the scheme.
