

Foul and Surface Water Drainage Strategy

No formal strategy is required. There will be no foul water produced by the proposed development. In terms of surface water, the installation of a mast would have no impact on surface water drainage.