

Drainage layout

The drainage layouts will be done as part of the SAB application which is in hand..

In summary the system will utilise raised planters and rainwater gardens located near each down pipe location.

I've attached the percolation report which states soakaways cannot be effectively utilised. A rainwater harvesting system will also be explored.

Trust this is of assistance