

The surrounding images show the T1 Sycamore in the rear of 24 Beechwood avenue. As can be seen in the images, the tree is of poor form and under a lot of canopy stress due to surrounding trees. Its proximity to the shed and the fence is causing concerns for the homeowner as they've had a number of branches fall in the recent months.

The yellow arrow is outlining T1 Sycamore.