1. Stock type fencing has already been installed as show in red on the enclosed map.
This has restricted access to the site and provides a barrier between the lower overgrown area of the quarry void and haulage yard.
2. The lower overgrown area of the site (Marked in green) to be left in its current state other than the continued treatment of any Japanese knotweed in the area.
3. The haulage element of the site (Marked in orange) be left in its current state and will its lawful use.
4. A programme to treat the Japanese knotweed on the site has already commenced and will continue its operation at the site until eradication.

Documents provided to support the above:

1. Site map showing areas referred to above.
2. Japanese Knotweed treatment method statement.
3. Ecology report
